Stargate Products

Ref: Stargate 1100-C, 1101-101-P Pilot Center Armrest

Textron Aviation has evaluated the referenced Stargate armrests as loose equipment in aircraft. Textron Aviation has no technical objection to the installation of this equipment.

This NTO letter does not provide installation instructions and it is up to the operator to insure the correct and compliant approval. The continued airworthiness of the seats and inspection for condition remains unchanged.

Best Regards,
